

Dear Volunteer:

Thank you for your interest in serving as a volunteer for 100 DAYS IN, which will be held on Friday, May 1, 2009 at the Gaylord National Hotel at the National Harbor in Maryland.

The purpose of 100 DAYS IN is two-fold: to take the pulse of President Barack Obama's administration 100 days into the term; and, issue a call to action for stakeholders: businesses, entrepreneurs, the community, and concerned citizens.

The highlight of 100 DAYS IN is the panel discussion, Connecting Stakeholders to the Change We Need, featuring the nation's leaders in business, entrepreneurship, the economy and the community. Invited panelists include: Valerie Jarrett, Senior Advisor to President Barack Obama for Intergovernmental Affairs and Public Liaison; Ben Cardin (D-MD), U.S. Senate and member of the Senate Committee on Small Business and Entrepreneurship; Dr. Sharon G. Hadary, Executive Director of Center for Women's Business Research; Marc Morial, President of the National Urban League; John Podesta, President and CEO of Center for American Progress; and, Darryl Hairston, Acting Administrator for the Small Business Administration.

Please take a moment to complete the volunteer form and return it as soon as possible. Our Volunteer Coordinator will follow-up with you as soon as it is received. We will try our best to accommodate your preferences. Please note that all volunteers will receive training prior to the event.

In the meantime, please feel free to contact me directly with questions or concerns. I can be reached at Kesi@ksgsc.com or (202) 904-1380. Again, we appreciate your interest in volunteering for 100 DAYS IN.
